

Old-Fashioned Short Cake

From an 1891 recipe book entitled "Palatable Dishes."

One quart of nice buttermilk,
add to it one teaspoonful of soda,
quarter of a teaspoonful of salt,
one tablespoonful of unmelted lard.

Then stir in enough sifted flour to make as soft a dough as can be handled.

Roll out to about half an inch thick, cut into diamonds and bake quickly.

Can be served with Washington grown seasonal fruit like strawberries, blueberries and peaches
